Churchill Follows, Warning the War Will Last Longer Than he had Thought

LONDON, Nov. 29 — (AP) -Prime Minister Churchill warned today that the war against Germany might last longer than he had thought. He said his recent prediction of a possible end by "early summer" might be revised by dropping the word "early."

Churchill addressed parliament after King George VI, opening the 10th session of the legislators elected in 1935, said that Britain intended to "reinforce as rapidly as possible the Unit- Brothers store in Warrensburg, ed Kingdom forces" now Sedalia, Clinton and Marshall, is fighting Japan.

B-29s Again Over Tokyo in Night Raid, According to Japanese Reports

By the Associated Press Tokyo radio said today that 'a minor formation of B-29s attempted their first night attack" on the Japanese capital, starting fires at two places.

The fires were immediately brought under control, said the broadcast recorded by the federal communications commission, and there was "practically no damage.'

The superfortresses dropped incendiaries and flare bombs, but were "repulsed by our effective interception," Tokyo declared.

The broadcast said: "A minor formation of enemy planes penetrated Tokyo area a little before 12 o'clock Nov. 29. In intercepting the Japanese are now giving hot reception to the enemy raiders."

Germany May be Putting out Peace Feelers Again

Associated Press War Analyst Today's special: We should not be surprised to learn most any time now that Nazidom is putting out peace feelers again. My guess is that these inquiries will concern mainly the question of the personal security of Hitler and his captains. There's little else they could hope to bargain over, since unconditional surrender is customary for a country so utterly beaten as Germany will be.

Message Signed Adolph Hitler Is Broadcast

LONDON, Nov. 29-(AP)-A message signed Adolf Hitler was broadcast by Berlin today the first direct word attributed to the long silent fuehrer since Heinrich Himmler read a proclamation for him at the swearing in of the Volksturm at Munich Nov. 12.

Today's message, replying to a telegram from Dr. Robert Ley on the anniversary of the "strength through joy" organization, thanked German labor for "great accomplishments" during difficult conditions and asserted that "when this fateful struggle has come to a successful end we will continue to build the Socialistic structure of the Reich."

Hitler has not appeared publicly since the bomb attempt on his life in July.

Infantry and Tanks Drive Germans From Five Towns On River Front

By William Frye

LONDON, Nov. 29 — (AP) - American tanks and infantry drove deeper into the corroding German front along the Roer river today after forcing the Germans from five towns in bitter battles to force open the gates to Cologne, 23 miles away. Langerwehe, last major communications point west of the Roer and four miles from the river citadel of Duren, fell late yesterday, dispatches from the First army said. The town had been entered Monday morning and the beaten Germans did not attempt a counterattack after quitting its eastern limits. Also seized were Hurtgen, Kleinhau, Jungersdorf and Koslar. The First army charged on through stiff opposition into the western outskirts of Merode, a mile southeast of Jungersdorf and 31/2 miles from Duren.

In the center of the western front, Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's divisions drove as much as ten miles forward, at places reached the tough outer crust of the Siegfried line in the rich Saar basin. His men were within eight miles of Saarbrucken, blackened capital of the Saar, and inside the industrial basin on a 26-mile front. The important towns of Saarlautern, Hagenau, Merzig, Forbach, Sarreguemines and Sarre Louis all were imminently threatened. The French First army in the south trapped many Germans between Mulhouse and Belfort.

U. S. First army veterans cleaned the last house and cellar of the devastated forest town of Hurtgen after three days, and then drove a mile northeast and captured Kleinhau. Jungersdorf, four miles from the Roer river fortress city of Duren, fell.

The Ninth army shattered organized resistance at Koslar and moved within less than a mile of Julich, a pivot of the Roer river Hurtgen is 271/2 miles southwest of Cologne. Jungersdorf is four miles from Duren (39,000) and Koslar is less than two from Julich. Both Duren and Julich are fortress towns on the Roer river line, last great natural barrier before the Rhine.

Other Americans of the First and Ninth armies crawling slowly forward along a 25-mile front between Linnich and Hurtgen in the Cologne plain east of Aachen fought for every house and cellar in the ruined villages of Inden. Langerwehe, Lamersdorf and Groshau. Some were within 23 miles of Cologne. Between the towns were intricate trench systems like those of the last war. Held Out in Mud

Though organized resistance collapsed in Koslar under the impact of Lt. Gen. William H. Simpson's Ninth army, a few Germans held out in the mud.

The First army of Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges captured Hurtgen and Jungersdorf in painfully slow advances in the darkness before dawn and in thick, drizzling fog which denied air

BOWEL CLEANING POWER OF KICKATO MEDICINE

One man recently took Kickato

three days and said afterward that he never would have believed his body contained so much filthy substance. He says his stomach, intestines, bowels and system were thoroughly cleansed that his constant dull headaches came to an end; several pimply skin eruptions on his face dried up overnight, and even the pains in his knee disappeared. At present he is an altogether different man, feeling fine in every way. Kickato Medicine contains water soluble chemicals that cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver. Miserable people soon feel different. So don't go on suffering. Debate On Post-War Army

"I am prepared to say that provided factory workers maintainand they may even improve upon -the present planned output, there is no reason to suppose that the British armies will be short of the necessary ammunition to fight their battles."

His statement on Japan came during a brief debate on Britain's post-war army. There was some disruption after the last war, he conceded, but continued:

"In this case the change-over will not be so violent because there is another war which will open with greater vigor at the other end of the world when this present one is finished."

In answer to another question he said married men in distant theaters of war could not be given preference over bachelors on home leaves for, among other reasons, unmarried people have feelings as well as married people."

"Besides, what concern is it of

He'd been casually acquainted ing for Simms and had offered to switch allegiance. Apparently Rugg hated his boss with all the intensity of a guy who's a bit unbalanced. He didn't think Simms was paying him enough and was anxious to sell out.

But Boggio was too smart to take in a traitor. At least he fatal mistake. He nurtured Rugg's hatred for Simms to a point where he was ready to do anything. Then Boggio casually mentioned that if ever an accident happened to Simms he'd give the person who caused it a little reward of say 10 grand, and then he'd see about a job. The temptation to do away with a troublesome rival without becoming directly involved was something Boggio couldn't resist. But he'd reckoned without Rugg's greed, firmly believing that the killing would only take place when the set-up

However, convinced that Boggio had undertaken to stand back of whatever he did, Rugg had let his feelings get the upper hand prematurely. A few days ago he'd shot Simms in cold blood, then he'd gone to Boggio. Naturally the latter had come across with the promised cash but he'd also given Rugg hell. Didn't he know better than to pull a job without preparing an out for himself?

Quick Peek Back At Big Six Season

By Arthur Edson KANSAS CITY, Nov. 29-(AP)-Slinging the superlatives around in a quick peek back at the Big Six football season:

Most Inconsistent Team: That's easy. Missouri. Like a department store elevator during the Christmas rush, Missouri's season was nothing but ups and downs.

Most Consistent Team: Oklahoma. That's why the Sooners need only to tie or beat Nebraska Saturday to win undisputed possession of the title.

Best Pre-Game Hint: The hinter was Chauncey Simpson, Missouri coach, who spoke up the night before the Thanksgiving day fuss with Kansas. Chauncey: "I have a secret weapon."

Most Surprised Player: The unidentified Kansan who first saw and tried to halt this S.W .- Jim Kekeris, a 273-pound tackle turned fullback. Kansas never did find a satisfactory way to detour this agile blockbuster. To make it some Jayhawker to fall on. Biggest Day For A Play: The downs, had himself so much fun
